

PLANNING COMMISSION VACANCY CITY OF McCLEARY

The City of McCleary is seeking letters of interest (applications) for a vacancy on the City of McCleary Planning Commission.

The City of McCleary Planning Commission is a five (5) member, non-paid, voluntary board that typically meets once a month (or as needed) in the evenings. The Planning Commission, under the direction of the Mayor and City Council, is to act as the research and fact-finding agency of the city for such purposes as may be found appropriate in McCleary Municipal Code (MMC) 2.28. The Commission may make recommendations to the Mayor, City Council and city staff on issues specified in MMC 2.28.

There are no minimum skills and abilities to be on the Planning Commission. There are certain requirements:

- Must live within the City limits or within two (2) miles of the City limits and be a City of McCleary utilities customer.
- Three (3) members must live within the City limits, and two (2) members may live outside the city limits that meet the above requirement.
- Additional information provided in RCW 35A.63.

To be eligible for consideration, a letter of interest and/or resume and the supplemental questionnaire is required to be submitted: 100 South 3rd Street, McCleary, WA 98557 or emailed to Mayor@CityofMcCleary.com.

PLANNING COMMISSION SUBMITTAL REQUIREMENTS

Letter of interest. Please include name, mailing address, contact phone number, email address (if you have one) and why you are interested in becoming a member of the planning commission. Also include:

- Why you have interest in becoming a member of the Planning Commission.
- Any skills and abilities you believe relate to the Commission.
- Any previous boards, commissions or any type of volunteer organization and what your role and involvement was.

Supplemental Questions. Please briefly complete the supplement questionnaire. You may either handwrite or type the responses. Feel free to use additional pages as necessary.
